VERSE 1

This is the cardinal of my imparting
Though I am a man I still do take a part in it
Dropping my hard earnings into a promising money-pit
Just to satisfy my yearnings is counterfeit
Lying a disease called consumer
It's boring a result of not knowing what freedom is God would you pardon this you give with arms full Walmart's no contest for the warehouse you target from
I am an arsonist
Lighting the fire for all who desire no moderate
You too are tired of this rich living selfishness
Slave at the day-job to spend your whole life away
Time for a new mission Jake-brake retard on this Unload the truck and give all to the least of them
You are responsible all that was given by God
Was not meant to be stuck in your palms

CHORUS 1

The blessing the money the time the job
Contents
The skills the marriage the cars the passion
Vessels
Investing the talents forgetting the balance
Contents
You are
You are the vessel

VERSE 2

But you're gripping that tight
Pull it back with the right hand as if it's your only life
But you're screwed if you do like fools do
Cuz he wants to give you riches to yet in sight
It's silly really we're never satisfied
Fat in our palace with a dude begging outside the poor
And you're asking me how to reach
Start by waking up from your food-coma

CHORUS 2

The freedom the house the food the education
Contents
The ethic the kids the savings the kindness
Vessels
The hopeful reforming of your testimony
Contents
We are
We are the Vessels

BRIDGE

If you wanna follow me
Say no to what you want
If you wanna live
Get on the cross
If you want life you've gotta let go
But I can't let go
I can't let go
So cut off my hands

VERSE 3

To deny myself to deny myself
Whatever I want or what I lust it must be put on the shelf
Health and wealth is a living hell compared to Sore and poor but a soul but a soul of health and wealth

This life is the contents and you are the vessel
This life is the contents and you are the vessel
So pour yourself out
You are the vessel
